

Pastor's Corner

Fruit.

I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last. John 15:16.

Greetings friends and saints of the Kirk. It is a joy to finally be in the Village and entering ministry with all of you. My wife Carol and I, along with our labs Fettuccine (9 months old) and Yokota (7 years old) are settling into life in this peaceful, quiet piece of paradise. Thanks for your gracious welcome and generous hospitality.

Spring is in the air here, with pollen and blossoms and new life bursting forth, especially with the blessings of moisture. All Nature sings and round me rings, the music of the spheres (words of my favorite hymn This is my Father's World)! As I absorb all the fruits of the Kirk that have come to pass, I give thanks for your fruitful harvest of God's gifts. For the past 2 years, you have worshipped faithfully twice every weekend, revisioned God's call to ministry, steadfastly served meals in your Greenhorn outreach, held Lenten Soup and Bread luncheons and devotions, gardened the Beauty of the Memorial Garden beyond compare and been a focal point of music ministry and musical offerings. Well done!

Now comes the next harvest of fruits for our Mission in Jesus Christ for the Village, Arkansas, America and God's world. Who will bear and bring fruits of healing to our neighbors and communities suffering from lack of health care? Who will provide fruitful and Christ Centered leadership for the future of the Kirk in order to evangelize and reach others with the love of Jesus?

The harvest is plentiful but the laborers few, said our Lord Jesus.

Reverend Jeff Kane

Thank You!

A number of people have asked me why, in “retirement,” I have done so many interims. More often than not, my response has been, “Think of how many new friends we have made!” Obviously, that includes you who have been so kind to Janet and me these last almost two years. And while I would be the last to compare myself to the Apostle Paul, I do echo his words: “I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus...” (1 Cor. 1:4).

It is obvious that you have been graced by God. How else to explain your gracious, kind, and generous spirit? I can’t thank you enough for Sunday’s send-off... the wonderful things that were expressed about us, the gift(s) you gave us, the manner in which you enveloped us with your love.

It truly touched my heart that you spoke so many gracious words – publicly and privately – about and to Janet. She has been my soul mate for more than 56 years, and anything I may have done of significance in that time is directly in debt to her sweet spirit.

There was another – unspoken – element involved in our time together. Did you notice it? There is a noted anticipation on your part as you prepare to say hello to your new pastoral leadership. I am confident you will embrace Jeff and Carol Kane in the same way – better?! – than you have Janet and me. The Kirk is at the advent of a new day, and we are excited for you.

I know you will do this but allow me to encourage you in it anyway. As I mentioned in my sermons, pray for Carol and Jeff, allow them the freedom to be who they are and have been called by God’s grace to be, speak openly to them of your support for them – as you have for us – and know that the best days of the Kirk in the Pines awaits you. Know that you will remain in our prayers, and hopefully we will see you again some time down the road.

Appreciatively,

Randy

There will be a Kirk table or two and outside venders will be encouraged to sign up and buy a table of their own for $40.00. If you know of anyone that would like to participate there will be signup information sheets forthcoming.

Kirk mission funds in action: The Project HOPE Food Bank

(The following is the first of several articles in the next few months highlighting the organizations supported by the Kirk in the Pines Mission Budget)

The Project HOPE Food Bank, located in Hot Springs, distributes food in Clark, Garland, Grant, Hot Spring, Montgomery, Ouachita, Pike, Saline and Union counties in Arkansas. The food bank opened in 2009 and operates under the direction of a volunteer Executive Director and an advisory board of directors. Through the support of community organizations, Project HOPE Food Bank (PHFB) distributes about 1 million pounds of food annually through 50 agencies and approximately 60,000 pantry visits. The PHFB also sponsors roughly 25,000 school backpacks, healthy after school snacks, and serves about 352,000 meals annually through charity kitchen partners.

Volunteers at Project HOPE Food Bank sort and stack bulk food purchases.

The Project HOPE Food Bank operates as a pooling of resources, assisting 50 area non-profits that do not have the assets to purchase or store enormous quantities of food. Purchasing food wholesale in large lots for the best price helps homeless shelters, charity kitchens, food pantries, crisis centers, children's homes, and children's feeding programs to fulfill their missions. This collaborative approach allows food to be distributed to many point-of-contact agencies in our most impoverished local areas.

Project HOPE Food Bank programs include:

Emergency Food Boxes - provide food to families in crisis. Counselors and caseworkers from area schools and social agencies are utilized to identify need and distribute the food boxes. Using professional counselors and caseworkers provides a layer of accountability for the program.

Senior Emergency Food Boxes - like the Emergency Food Boxes but designed to meet the nutritional needs of seniors. Senior agencies identify and distribute the boxes, including the Area Agency on Aging, Arkansas Hospice, Cooperative Christian Ministries and Clinic, Jackson House (our community crisis center), Arkansas Department of Human Services Division of Aging, Gentiva Hospice, Hot Springs Housing Authority, CHI St. Vincent Cancer Center, CHI St. Vincent Senior Center, Montgomery County Food Bank, New Beginnings Outreach, Disabled Veterans Outreach (Garland and Clark counties), and Home-Based Veterans Service.

Backpack Program – started at the request of our local schools, the backpacks contain nutritious, individually packaged, easily prepared foods light enough to be carried home by young children from eligible families. This service is available for the seven Garland county school districts with assistance to four other nearby counties.

The Project HOPE Food Bank is a 501 (c)3 nonprofit agency with one part-time employee to handle community relations. Their warehouse space, loading equipment, and refrigerators were all either donated or obtained through grants. They host over 300 volunteers annually (5,000 volunteer hours total), of whom approximately 30 assist in daily operations. These volunteers include our own Kirk in the Pines members, Becky and Harry Wakefield. If you have questions about this wonderful organization, we encourage you to talk to Becky and Harry, or contact the Project Hope Food Bank directly at fb.projecthope915@gmail.com. Contributed by David Deas, Communications Committee member

PW Spring Gathering attended by 7 Kirk women

The 2026 Presbyterian Women's Spring Gathering was held on April 17 and 18 in Hot Springs. The theme was Living Waters. This two-day event offered worship, fellowship, learning, and renewal at First Presbyterian and Westminster Churches. Our own Kirk PW ladies hosted the Saturday breakfast at Westminster.

After breakfast we heard an inspiring sermon presented by Rev. Leslie Roper, minister of First Presbyterian in Hot Springs. There were two breakout sessions that were very informative about the behind the scenes ministry at Jackson House and Oaklawn Race Track. Additionally, we had the opportunity to visit and learn about Prince of Peace Lutheran Church sharing a wing in Westminster's building. There was also an Iris Flower Show being held at Westminster that we were able to visit. First Presbyterian and Westminster Presbyterian did a wonderful job as host churches for this year's gathering.

Barbara Mulley expresses heartfelt thanks for love and support

I want to thank all of the people who made the memorial service for Earl so beautiful thanks to pastor Randy Hyde for his beautiful words of wisdom and comfort, Donna and Randy Toney for perfect music, Chris for redoing the bulletin every time I thought of a change, Chip for hauling load after load of chairs down the paths of the garden, and Judy Rosenthal and her crew for the lovely reception.

There are so many others who helped during these past difficult years of Earl's illness and decline. Thanks to folks who came to stay with him when I had to be away for a little while, the wonderful Tuesday lunches delivered to my door, soups and casseroles in the church freezer which fed me many a time. This is a wonderful, loving community. I am so grateful to be part of it.

The Mockingbirds

by Judy Corwin

Why is it, we are in such a hurry? In this day of instant news and instant messages, we are now programmed to respond immediately on our cell phones. We turn on our televisions to catch the “breaking news”. When we are in our cars, we have the ability to answer calls at any moment. This is now a fact of life for ourselves and our families.

But it doesn't have to be that way. A week ago, I was leaving Mt. Carmel's parking lot after visiting Bob. The drive leading onto Ponce is often backed up with a line of cars entering or exiting the Village through the automatic gate. As I was waiting for the traffic to clear, two Mockingbirds were using this cement drive as a stage. I watched a performance so amazing I didn't dare move the car. It was a good thing no one was in a hurry to leave, since I sat and watched this “dance” for several minutes. The birds were facing each other as if using the other as a mirror. It was a Mockingbird mating dance! Perfectly coordinated, these birds would mimic the other's steps. Two steps right from one bird and the other would repeat two steps left in perfect alignment. It went on... one step forward, one step back. If it were a bird “square dance,” it could not have been better coordinated. This went on for minutes ... my thought was to grab my cell phone and record this. But I realized this was a performance just for me alone!

These moments are sometimes referred to as “God winks” just to remind us that something greater is controlling our lives. This was God letting me know that I should enjoy times like this to lift my spirits. This is God letting me know there is peace and beauty all around us, if we just take the time to enjoy His gifts. The birds continued until they both flew into the air in a flurry of wings and maneuvers only jet pilots could appreciate, and finally both landed on the cement columns of the gates. Their performance was completed. I was overwhelmed with the joy and peace I had just experienced. In my mind, the song written by Folliott Sanford Pierpoint in 1864 was playing the words “For the Beauty of this earth” just for me. No radio or cell phone was required. We all need these “time outs” to observe what listening to the “God Channel” can provide. I'd like you to take advantage of this free channel as well. By the way... there is no ring tone ... It just happens!

Let's do PB&C again!

Once again, the Mission Committee is collecting Peanut Butter and Cereal (PB&C) until Father's Day, Sunday, June 21, 2026. Last year 5 charities who assist those in need were very grateful recipients of PB&C from the generosity of Kirk Members. They depend on us to help those who are hungry in our community!

There are collection containers marked “Peanut Butter and Cereal” in Bailey Hall near the windows. If you prefer to make a monetary donation for the Mission Committee instead that would be great. Make your check to Presbyterian Kirk in the Pines, PB&C on the memo line and put in the offering plate or take to the office.

If you have questions about this 2026 mission project, please contact Judy Rosenthal at 501 545 0139 or 501 922 6528.

Contributed by Judith Rosenthal, Mission Committee Member

Last year's collection grand total was 555 jars of peanut butter, 301 boxes of cereal, and even 6 jars of jelly. These were distributed to the Boys and Girls Club, Potter's Clay, Samaritans Ministries, Jackson House and The Call.

New artists discovered at Kirk luggage painting class

Ten Kirk members became students recently as Beverly Carpenter led them in a painting class. They were all there to decorate their suitcases. A painted suitcase would be fun to use and also it would be easier to identify as it circled the carousel in an airport.

The first thing Beverly said about the class was "We all had a good time, it was fun." Some came with the anticipation that the painting would be done for them. Surprise! You had to do the work yourself, either using a pattern or by creating your own design using Beverly's fast drying acrylic paints. "Some were pleased and surprised at the really neat things that they painted", said Beverly. Event helpers were Judy Corwin, Melissa Sonnen, and Jean Fisher.

Beverly has been generous in using her artistic talents for the benefit of the Kirk. We are thankful for her. Contributed by Dotty Rector, Communications Committee member Gail Salmen puts finishing touches on her painting.

It's said that "change is hard", but I'd like to use a slightly different word. "Transition is hard". I know it's been hard for the Session, and I expect it holds true for everyone in the Kirk. And now, finally after 2 ½ years, our transition period has come to an end. We are all eager to move forward and embrace what God has for us with the arrival of our new pastor.

But, oh, what mixed feelings we have. We have had to say goodbye to the two special people that God blessed us with during this time. We are so grateful to Rev. Randy Hyde and Rev. Bill Seitz for giving of themselves to the Kirk. Frankly, we couldn't have made it without them. They were like God's glue that held us together. Or, as someone said, they have been a bridge for us to walk across as we moved from one side of this transition to the other.

As for mixed feelings, there are several. One is the love and appreciation we have for Randy and Bill as well as the sadness we feel as they leave. Another is the joy that comes with welcoming Rev. Jeff Kane as the new minister of the Kirk. We're excited. But the overriding feeling is gratitude to God for seeing us through this transition. Having experienced his presence for these 2 ½ years, we know that our good God will continue to be with us now that we are on the other side. Thanks be to God!

Sheila Stanley

Sheila Thomas (Alexander) Stanley passed into the arms of her Lord and Savior on April 2, 2026 in Hot Springs, Arkansas.

She was born on May 14, 1928, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to Norman Duncan Alexander and Helen Inez Thomas. She spent most of her childhood in Oklahoma and graduated from Central High School in Tulsa.

Sheila went on to attend Oklahoma State University, where she met the love of her life and future husband of 67 years Earle William "Bill" Stanley. While at OSU, Sheila was a Charter Member of the Delta Sigma chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority.

Sheila and Bill were married on October 21, 1950, at First Presbyterian Church in Tulsa. They began their life together in Arkansas City, Kansas, where Bill operated Ark City Rendering Company. Over the years, their journey took them to Naperville, Illinois; Memphis, Tennessee; San Angelo, Texas; and Garland, Texas, before retiring in 1989 to Hot Springs Village, Arkansas.

Sheila will be remembered with deep love and affection for her warm spirit, positive outlook on life, and her natural ability to connect with others. Her creativity was a true expression of her love—whether through beautifully smocked heirloom clothing for her grandchildren or the many exquisite quilts she lovingly crafted and gifted. She and Bill found great joy in gathering with family, especially at Thanksgiving, hosting visits, and creating lasting memories with their children and grandchildren.

She was an active member of Presbyterian Kirk in the Pines in Hot Springs Village, as well as a member of P.E.O. and the Quilt Guild.

Sheila and Bill shared a love of golf, bridge, and time spent with friends. They also gave generously of their time volunteering at church and with Jackson House and Meals on Wheels. Sheila is survived by her four children: Thomas K. Stanley (Beverly) of Carrollton, Texas; William D. Stanley of Hot Springs Village, Arkansas; Alexandra "Alexa" L. Robinson (Porter) of Collierville, Tennessee; and Jeri E. Doane (Larry) of Edmond, Oklahoma.

She was a proud and loving grandmother to six grandchildren—affectionately known by her as "The Grands": David T. Stanley (Karen) of Nolensville, Tennessee; Katherine A. Stanley (Jason) of Plano, Texas; Matthew R. Doane (Lauren) of Fort Worth, Texas; Erin E. Baxter (Tyler) of Tulsa, Oklahoma; Mollie M. Bailey (MG) of Franklin, Tennessee; and Whitney L. Burnley (John) of Nashville, Tennessee. She was also blessed with ten great-grandchildren, along with many nieces and nephews across the country.

She was preceded in death by her husband Bill in 2017, her parents and three siblings: twins Janette Reynolds and Isabel Kiene, and Norman D. Alexander, Jr.

Memorial contributions may be made in Sheila's name to the STAR scholarship fund through the local P.E.O chapter or to the Presbyterian Kirk in the Pines in Hot Springs Village.

Thanks be to you O God
that I have risen this day

To the rising of this life itself.
May it be a day of blessing,
O God of every gift.
A day of new beginnings given.

Help me to avoid every sin and the source of every sin to forsake.

And as the mist scatters
from the crest of the hills
may each ill haze clear from my soul, O God.
